Tasmanian Aboriginal culture

Hobart is a place that recognises and celebrates Tasmanian Aboriginal people, history and culture, working together towards shared goals. The City of Hobart's Aboriginal Commitment and Action Plan sets out the City's commitment and approach to working with Aboriginal people.

We encourage our grant recipients to acknowledge and engage with The Tasmanian Aboriginal community in the activities we support.

Acknowledgement of Country and/or Welcome to Country Both a Welcome to Country and an Acknowledgement of Country recognise the continuing connection Aboriginal people have to their land. Traditionally used as a way to grant permission to cross country boundaries, these remain important symbolic gestures today.

Some Aboriginal people will feel uncomfortable attending an event where no Welcome or Acknowledgement is offered and so it is important to consider whether providing one is appropriate.

These ceremonies and statements offer a valuable moment to reflect and consider the 40 000+ years of history and culture in this place and to pay respect to Aboriginal people.

Select formalities that the activity will include in relation to Tasmania's Aboriginal heritage. *

Applicants should endeavour to ensure that their activity will be accessible for people of all abilities. For more information visit our Equal Access webpage.

Please keep the costs associated with delivering an added services in mind when developing your budget.

- Venue: entrance is step-free and a lift is available if the activity is not on the ground floor
- Invitation: is in an accessible format and asks participants "Please inform us of any dietary and/or access requirements"
- Wayfinding and signage: include an access map denoting paths of travel, location of accessible toilets, prominent signage, green areas for assistive animals (to toilet during the activity)
