A NEW ADVENTURE EVERY SATURDAY

Saturday 8.30am to 3pm
Hobart's Salamanca Place

SALAMANCAMARKET.COM.AU

HOBART'S FAMOUS MARKET
ATTRACTS THOUSANDS OF
LOCALS AND VISITORS EVERY SATURDAY OF THE YEAR

Market Area

In the 19th century, the elegant Georgian sandstone buildings that line Salamanca Place and face Hobart's waterfront were used for warehousing whale oil, grain, timber and imported goods.

Today, as one of Hobart's most dynamic entertainment precincts, visitors and locals flock to Salamanca Place for its shops, restaurants, bars and cafes.

Each Saturday, Salamanca Place comes alive when the area hosts Hobart's famous Salamanca Market, the most visited attraction in Tasmania and one of Australia's largest and most vibrant outdoor markets.

Market Traders

First held on 22 January 1972, Salamanca Market has grown from a dozen informal traders to encompass nearly 300 licensed traders. Today, Salamanca Market showcases a variety of fine art, crafts, jewellery, fresh food and friendly locals. The market's numerous Tasmanian producers and designers make Salamanca Market memorable and unique – from freshly picked organic fruits and vegetables to handmade jewellery, to world-renowned woodwork made from distinctive Tasmanian timbers like Huon Pine and Blackheart Sassafras.

Casual Market Traders

Salamanca Market showcases a diverse selection of registered casual traders each week. Whilst their stalls can be located throughout the Market, the majority of casual traders are located at the west end of Salamanca Place, opposite St David's Park. Casual traders are not individually listed on this map.

Getting to Salamanca Market

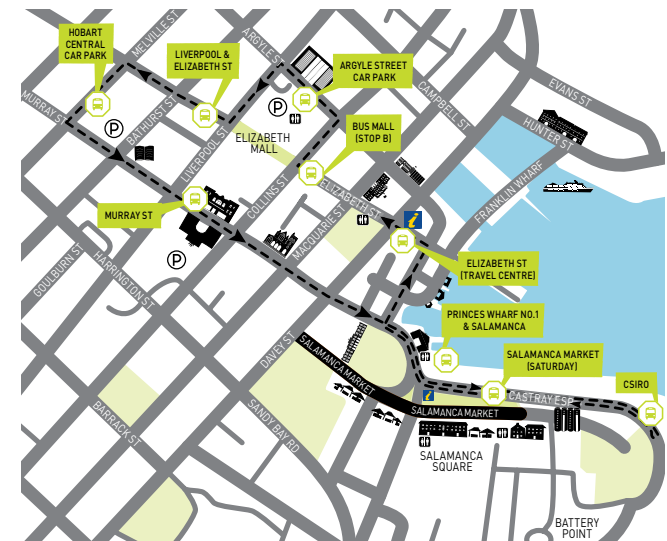

On Saturdays, Salamanca Market is closed to traffic from 5:00am to 6:00pm. Visitors are encouraged to use public transport, walk, cycle or access a City of Hobart car park situated nearby Salamanca Market.

City of Hobart Car Parks

- Trafalgar Car Park, open 7.00am - 5.30pm; $5.00 flat rate
 - Salamanca Square Car Park, open 8.30am – 6.00pm; $1.50 per hour
 - Argyle Street Car Park, open 7.00am – 10.00pm, offers 90 minutes of free parking before charges are applied.
 - Hobart Central Car Park, open 8.30am – 5.30pm, offers 90 minutes of free parking before charges are applied.
 - Centrepunkt Car Park, open 8.30am – 5.15pm, offers 90 minutes of free parking before charges are applied.
- For further information on parking visit salamancamarket.com.au

Free Salamanca Market Shuttle Bus

Getting to the Salamanca Market has never been easier. Park in either Argyle Street, Hobart Central or Centrepunkt Car Park and catch the free Salamanca Market Shuttle Bus to the market. The shuttle runs in a continuous loop between the Hobart city centre and Salamanca Market between 9am and 2pm every Saturday. The shuttle is accessible for people with a disability and there is also room for your shopping, prams and strollers.
