The City of Hobart has teamed up with Good Life Permaculture to encourage more people to reduce waste and compost at home. Food and garden waste makes up over half of the average rubbish bin, so everyone can do their bit to reduce waste. Composting your own food scraps to grow more food is a fantastic ‘closed loop’ recycling system.