Dancing through life

Mathers House regular Judith Ker.

With Judith Ker

By Julia Bryan

"I always say to people, never be told you can't do something. If you know you can".

At the grand age of 96, Judith Ker has no plans of retirement, currently teaching ballet classes for adults and seniors.

Despite being told that she was "entirely unsuited for a stage career" during her education at Sadler's Wells Ballet School, Judith never let it stop her from chasing her lifelong dream of becoming a ballerina.

Judith joined the International Ballet Company, dancing across Europe and England before returning to Australia when she joined the Borovansky Ballet Company in Melbourne and to her great surprise Rudolph Nureyev was in the class.

When asked how she persisted with her dream, she simply said "I just kept going".

City of HOBART

Judith's determination has never faltered, even after she lost the role of Wendy for a ballet production of Peter Pan in Hobart, she took the role of Peter without a single rehearsal. Having a minor role in several seasons of Peter Pan in Sydney as an early teenager, Judith knew the role backwards.

After years of running her own ballet school in Hobart, Judith continues to do what she loves best by running an adult ballet and 'keep fit' class.

"I think it's important to keep doing what you are capable of for as long as you can".

What keeps Judith motivated? "Life, I suppose... I don't want to retire unless I have to".

When she's not teaching, Judith keeps herself busy in her garden or collecting shells along the beach. Even while listening to the radio, she keeps her hands busy by crafting boxes out of paper, "I don't like to sit doing nothing, I'm always making something".

A long-time patron of Mathers House, Judith calls it "an oasis".

"I come here for the peace and quiet, just to recuperate and get away from the hustle and bustle of the city".

What advice does she give to those wanting to reboot their day-to-day life?

"Go at your own pace and do what you can, and you'll find after a while you can do a bit more."

Wise words from a wise lady.

Message from the Mathers House Coordinator

In a recent report, The Cost of Living Longer Report 2024 commissioned by Australian Seniors in partnership with research group MyMavins, shed light on the severe impact of rising costs on older Australians. (The Senior Tasmania – February 2025).

With many facing financial hardships we invite you to visit Mathers House, meet our amazing team, and experience the welcoming atmosphere firsthand. You'll have the opportunity to participate in activities such as free IT help, meditation classes, card and board games, to affordable exercise and craft classes, music and special events.

Our café is open to the public. It offers budget friendly, nutritious and best of all, delicious meals (soup and desserts $4, mains $5 for a half size and $9 for a full size). Monday to Friday incorporating essential nutrients into your diet or pop in for a coffee and chat.

We believe that every person brings something unique, so come on in, take a tour, and let's discover if Mathers House is the right place for you.

Be digital-ready and get connected in-home assistance

This free program has been designed by Mathers House to build confidence, skill and online safety for people over 50. Good Things Foundation: Fixing the Digital Divide have assisted with funding to help us bring unique digital benefits to thirty individuals who are struggling to get connected.

If you have a device, access to the internet and can commit to one home visit and two Mathers House visits, and you are happy to complete a brief survey, we would love to hear from you on 6234 1441. You can also help someone you know register for this program.

Yoga

Jenn has been practicing yoga for over 15 years and has been a Registered Yoga Alliance teacher since 2023.

She has a passion for teaching yoga that is accessible yet offers students' creative challenges.

Jenn is passionate about the ability of yoga to calm the mind, regulate the nervous system, and improve strength and mobility.

She loves to help students find strength and space in their bodies they didn't know was there.

If you're thinking to yourself 'I can't do yoga', you're certainly not alone.

Jenn offers a welcoming space for all abilities and encourages you to remember the first step of yoga: 'begin where you are'.

Community Program Spotlight

Mathers House is a place for seniors but we also provide a space for community organisations running outreach and support programs.

We have four different groups offering free meals to those in need on the following days and times: Monday and Tuesday 4 pm in Criterion House, 1 pm Saturdays in Criterion House and 12 pm in Mathers House main dining room.

The following donations can also be dropped off at Mathers House:

Toothbrush and toothpaste, soap, bodywash, shampoo, conditioner, wet wipes, canned food (in date) cleaned and non-strained clothing.

Thank you for your support and generosity helping those in need.

Justus Laughter Class

This workshop features a series of fun and engaging exercises combining laughter, improvisational singing, dancing and spontaneous storytelling – perfect for anyone looking to boost their mood, reduce stress, and explore a sense of joy!

Backed by science, laughter therapy offers numerous benefits by reducing stress hormones, elevating dopamine and endorphins, boosting immune system, lowering blood pressure and helping to manage depressive and anxious states.

Let's share a laugh and make life a little brighter. Justus is looking forward to meeting you and sharing the joy of laughter!

Act Your Age

Those wishing to have a crack at acting or have experience are invited to join the Fundamentals of Acting & Performance. John Adkins will conduct workshops as well as performances at the end of term. Looking for performers (acting, singing, mime etc.) and anyone who would rather be in the back helping. Helps to build confidence and opportunities to present your own works. Workshops are on Wednesdays from 10 am–12 noon at Mathers House.

Volunteering opportunities at Mathers House

Make a difference, connect to your community and receive wonderful benefits such as making new friends, improved mental and physical health and boosting your social skills.

Are you interested in volunteering in Mathers House café? We have roles in the kitchen cooking, food prep or both (depending on your skills) or serving in the dining room where you get to chat to our wonderful customers.

Kitchen rosters are 9 am – 1.30 pm and dining service from 10.30 am – 1.30 pm. We are open Monday to Friday so if interested and want more information call 03 6243 1441 during business hours to chat with Denise.

Current Police Check and Food Safety Certificate are required.

Reboot your Life!

As we grow older, daily life can become monotonous. Every so often, we are in need of a refresh. Here are a few steps you can take to reboot your life at Mathers House!

Learn a new skill or hobby: Try your hand at quilting, learn new computer skills or try learning an instrument like the ukulele. And with Mah Jong lessons now starting on Tuesdays from 10–11.30 am in the Mathers dining room, it's the perfect time to start something new and stimulating – it can be great for rebooting the mind!

Connect with community: Spending time with others can be a great way to reboot your social life, join our book club, knitting group, or attend our popular Scrabble with Friends.

Get active: Getting the body moving is key to feeling revitalised. Signing up to classes for T'ai Chi, Zumba or Pilates could be the perfect way to find your low-impact exercise activity.

Start your reboot journey at Mathers House today. It's never too late to tweak or reinvent yourself!
